EXPLAINS SALE OF FOREST.

Mrs. Vanderbilt Wants Husband's Conservation Plans Perpetuated.

In formally announcing approval of the purchase of the Pisgah forest from the North Carolina estate of the late George W. Vanderbilt the forest service has made public a letter from Mrs. Edith S Varderbilt, containing her offer to sell the tract. Mrs. Vanderbilt offered the Piagah area to the government for $5 an acre, a figure much lower than that which had been asked by her husband. Her offer was readily accepted.

offer was readily accepted.

Giving her reasons for making the tender, Mrs. Vanderbilt said: "Mr. Vanderbilt was the first of the large forest owners in America to adopt the practice of forestry. He conserved the Pisgah forest from the time he bought it up to his death. I wish earnestly to make such disposition of it as will maintain in the fullest and most remanent way its natural value as an object lesson in forestry, as well as its worderful beauty and charm; and I readile that its ownership by the nation will alone make its preservation permanent and certain."

ation permanent and certain."

The tract compuses $6,700 acres in Fransylvania. Henderson, Buncombe an Hansylvania. Henderson, Buncombe and Hayward counties It is proposed to make it a government game refuge for the preservation of the fauna of the eastern mountains.
